to be Held at the

Vint Hill Farms

Friday, April 27th., 1923

Announcement

Last year Buckland Hall Farms made a new record for a sale of cattle in the south and east. It was a record of more and better cattle offered at public auction than breeders in that section had ever had an opportunity to bid for. A year of production and development has elapsed since that sale. The work has been constructive and hence the cattle listed for Buckland Hall Farms Second Annual Sale are far superior and will be of more value to the purchaser than those for which he contended a year ago.

The International grand champion, Lespedeza Collynie is as fit and fresh as ever. His annual crop of calves become more valuable as appreciation of his ability as a sire becomes more general. Sons and daughters of Vint Hill Revolution have had another year on the fair circuit and it has been a triumphant one as the records of the season's shows attest.

No public sale catalog in recent years has listed as many animals with as good records of winning in the show ring and as many animals of show ring calibre ready to go out at the forthcoming season's exhibitions and win profit and renown for their exhibitors than does this catalog of Buckland Hall Farms Second Annual Auction Sale.

In addition to this a specially attractive feature will be the bull and twelve females from Mr. Harrison's recent importation from Scotland.

To buy at this sale means to go forward once more in the direction of breed progress, breed building and profitable industry.—Will Johnson of the Shorthorn World.

The Buckland Hall Farm, Inc., in announcing its Second Annual public sale of SHORTHORN CATTLE, on the Vint Hill Farms the afternoon of Friday, April 27th, 1923, takes pleasure in stating that included among the cattle listed for that sale will be a draft of heifers from our Secretary's late purchases in Scotland, bred to the most noted Scotch Bulls.

Our offering this year will contain a large number of cows and heifers, the former with calves at foot, and the latter in calf to the International Grand Champion "Lespedeza Collynie," the Champion "Vint Hill Revolution," and his Grand Champion son "Village Avon."

Added to above will be several of the best sons of the International Grand Champion "Lespedeza Collynie," among which is "Pride of Grandview," Junior Champion 1921, at four State fairs and one of our undefeated Get of Sire at eight State Fairs.

Catalogues will be sent to all those who will do us the honor of writing for same.
